DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-18 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3, 11-16, drawn to a method for detecting endotoxin comprising the steps of a) incubating a sample with a bacteriophage tail protein, and b) detecting endotoxin bonded to a bacteriophage tail proteins, wherein the bacteriophage tail protein comprises a tag comprising an amino acid sequence according to SEQ ID NO: 5, 6 or 7.

Group II, claim(s) 4-10, drawn to a method for removing endotoxin from a sample comprising the steps of a) incubating a sample with bacteriophage tail proteins, and b) separating the bacteriophage tail protein-endotoxin complex from the sample.

Additionally, Group I above is subject to further restriction. Applicant is required to further elect a specific SEQ ID NO. This is NOT an election of species. Amino acid sequences represent structurally distinct proteins that are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each amino acid sequence is presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, subject to restriction.

The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The technical feature linking Groups I-II appears to be that they all relate to detecting endotoxin with a bacteriophage tail protein.

However, Nesper et al. (2000 J Bacteriology 182(18): 5097-5104; IDS) teach phage-binding studies of bacteriophage K139 with purified lipopolysaccharide (LPS).

Art Unit: 1656

Therefore, the technical feature linking the inventions of Groups I-II does not constitute a special technical feature as defined by PCT Rule 13.2, as it does not define a contribution over the prior art.

Accordingly, Groups I-II are not so linked by the same or corresponding special technical feature as to form a single general inventive concept.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
